Burglars at Work. burglars made an unsuccessful attempt to ransack the residence of P. A. Hurddi, near the corner of Twenty second and Lincoln avenue. On retiring at night Mr. Hurdd syeme. On retiring at hight Mr. Hurdan simply closed the screen door, so as to all y air to circulate through the house. And the night prowlers thinking they had a good opportunity to put in their work, cut the screen and made their entrance to the kitchen. But luckily the door entering the other part of the house was securely locked, and they could get no further.

locked, and they could get no farther.

They then left the place and went to an adjoining house and tried to force at entrance there, but were prevented by some parties in the house who happened to be awake at the time. No clue to the miggreauts has been found.

The Iron Industry.

Mr. J. L. Youman, an old and exper enced iron man, from Penesylvania, wa in the city yesterday, on his way to the Pacific coast. Mr. Youman was inter viewed by a Hanano reporter, and he seemed quite favorably impressed with Ogden and its surroundings, and he stated that from what he had seen and heard of that from what he had seen and heard of the immense beds of ore that lie covered in the mountains beside us, he could not help but believer that as soon as the industry is opened up and developed here there will be a second Pittsburg spring up in the shade of the Wasatch range. He says: "What you need is to get eastern iron men interested here; men who understand the business. Then the enterprise can be carried on successfully and do a lasting good to the people who live here. If you had something of the kind here now, while all this building is going on, just think what an expense it would save, and how much less building would cost here. Everything you get in the way of iron is shipped in from the east, and by the time freights are paid it makes it expensive building material."

Mr. Youman will be ou the coast till about October I, and then he expects to return and visit Salt Lake and Ogden and see what he can do towards getting an interest manifested in the enterprise here, as well as in the east where he came from.

This is an industry that should be carried to maturity soon. Oxden especially needs something of the kind to sustain its present prosperity. the immense beds of ore that lie covered in

A FILED REMEDY FOR BILLIOUSNESS.

Those who suffer from disorder or inaction of the liver will never get the upper hand of the unruly organ so long as they use such irrational remedies as blue pills, calomel and podophyllin. But from the tried and popular medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, they may expect relief with a certainty of obtaining it. The influence of the bitters upon the great billary gland is direct, powerful, and speedity felt. The relief afforded is not spasmodic, but complete and permanent. The sallowness of the skin, furred appearance of the tonges, indirection, costiveness, headache, nausea, pains through the right side and shoulder, in fax, every accompaniment of the obstinate complaint are entirely and promptly removed by a course of this inestimable medicine, in behalf of which testimenty is constantly emanating from every quarter, and from all classes of society.

FORT DOUGLAS FACTS.

The weather up here savors more of approaching whiter than mid-summer. Withal it's more agreeable than the roasting heat of July last.

In our jottings published in The Herally yesterday morning, we mentioned in the manuscript or "copy" sent you, that Lieu tenant Johnson, jr., Sixteenth infantry had gained a supernumerary place on the department team and had gone to Cam Douglas, Wisconsin, to the division contest. The type made us say "Sergeant. In justice to that affable officer we make the correction.
